

Title: True Friend

Album: Sessions with Mick

Lyrics / Music: Val Kilmer / Mick Rossi

1

Intro: C Em Am (x2)

C Em Am
Till the end I've been a true friend
C Em Am
Always steady, always true
C Em Am
I never bent when the way was straight for you
C Em Am
There's more to say but I can't take it today
F G Am
As I don't feel what you feel anymore
F G Am
And I don't see what you see anymore
F G Am
I don't feel what you feel anymore
F G Am
Till the end I've been a true friend
C Em Am
One more mortal has let me down
C Em Am
I'm alone with rhyming in an unknown town
C Em Am
Alone with poetry and foreign football on hotel television
C Em Am
A text message from a troubled kept woman
F G Am
And I bend, and I bend, and I bend and I'm abandoned
F G Am
I don't see what you see anymore
F G Am
I don't feel what you feel anymore
F G Am
Till the end I've been a true friend
Am Am
La la la la lie, All is left to lies
Am Am
La la la la lie, All you do is lying
C Em Am
You've given me bad dreams or so it seems
C Em Am
My son in danger, my daughter a stranger
C Em Am
My hope, my heart, my prayer, last thought was a prayer for you
C Em Am
I've just got one question vacuous man
F G Am
How could you not see my value
F G Am
And I bend, and I bend, and I bend and I'm abandoned
F G Am
I don't feel what you feel anymore
F G Am
Till the end I've been a true friend
F G Am
Until the end I've been a true friend (x2)
